

Preethi Rao

Preethi is a well-respected Learning and Development professional with over 20 years of experience with different corporations.

Preethi is one of the few Kirkpatrick Certified Professionals - Gold Level in India. As a Kirkpatrick Certified Facilitator for Kirkpatrick Partners, she has delivered several public and in-house Kirkpatrick Four Levels® Evaluation Certification Programs. She has also worked with several organizations to customize their evaluation strategy as per the Kirkpatrick philosophy. She has received her Brinkerhoff Certification on High Performance Learning Journeys. Preethi currently works as an independent consultant with a few very well reputed consulting firms.

Through her training design work, she has demonstrated the importance of evaluation by designing programs with an inbuilt evaluation and transfer of learning mechanism. She has worked at providing learning solutions that are not only fun to attend but are followed up with a rigorous support mechanism that helps convert learning to on-the-job performance. During the training delivery, she ensures that there is evidence of learning and reaction occurring in the training room.
